FILM: About Adam. Charming young Adam instantly strikes a chord with singer-waitress Alice, and he also sweeps both her sisters, her mother and her brother off their feet just a short while before everyone is expecting the young lovers to get married. Romantic comedy starring Stuart Townsend, Kate Hudson, Frances O'Connor and Charlotte Bradley. (Star-23.00)

FILM: Celebrity. A burnt-out feature writer with a script he hopes to sell tries to worm his way into the celebrity world while also struggling with an ex-wife who won't forgive his philanderings and a whole bunch of his own neuroses. Woody Allen comedy with Kenneth Branagh, Judy Davis, Joe Mantegna, Famke Janssen, Winona Ryder, Leonardo Di Caprio and Melanie Griffith. (Alpha-1.15)

FILM: Cross of Iron. Led by a hardened sergeant, a squad of German soldiers struggles to survive a Russian attack on the Eastern Front in World War II, though the real battle is fought from within, between the sergeant, who wants his men to survive, and a Prussian officer who is in it for the glory. War drama directed by Sam Peckinpah, starring James Coburn, Maximilian Schell and James Mason. (Star-0.45)

SELECTIONS

"The Gilmore Girls," on Star at 13.30.

FILM: Alien III. Just when she thinks her ordeals are over, Ellen Ripley's craft crashes into another weird planet and she discovers that not only does she have a vicious alien stowaway on board, but there's someone else who wants her dead as well. Science-fiction thriller starring Sigourney Weaver, Charles Dutton and Charles Dance. (Antenna-23.15)

FILM: The Anniversary Party. Joe and Sally's huge anniversary bash is meant to revive their flagging relationship, but Joe is in hot water since he's faded to another wife's orchival in the lead of his best-selling screenplay. Drama written and directed by, and starring Alan Cumming and Jennifer Jason Leigh. (Star-0.45)

FILM: Next Friday. With a gangster hot on his heels, Craig moves in with his lottery-winning uncle and cousins in the suburbs for a spell, but he ends up getting into more trouble there than he ever imagined possible. Comedy starring Ice Cube, Tamala Jones and Mike Epps. (Alpha-1.30)
